3 ACTION ITEMS

4 OLD BUSINESS

- a) School Art Project
Presenter: Tammy Murray, Kim Helmer

It was reported the looms were picked up.

- b) Greenway Art
Presenter: Tammy Murray, Kim Helmer

Concern was mentioned when two of the squares were not returned when passed out. Attempts were made via text and email for their return. Conversation continued as to how to remedy the missing pieces in the future.

5 NEW BUSINESS

- a) Media Committee Update
Presenter: Kristin Ryan

Ms. Perricone spoke to Nathanael Shelton, Communication Director, regarding the number of brochures being printed, and the timeframe of completion.

Ms. Ryan saw a post on Facebook from the Town of Clayton regarding the art sculpture trail and she was happy to see it. Ms. Ryan enthusiastically encouraged the members to share the post. Ms. Perricone expressed appreciation of Ms. Holland – Town Clerk and Cat White – Communications and Marketing Specialist for being a great help in getting things done regarding the brochure. Ms. Ryan suggested bringing in one artist per year to paint a mural, making it a tradition.

- b) Square to Square
Presenter: Kristin Ryan

Ms. Ryan explained the scavenger hunt to the board. She continued to explain when kids gather stickers located at different art sculptures and complete their sheet, they will get a prize. Ms. Ryan went over a list of items the Town has provided. Discussion continued about what the Public Arts Advisory Board provided. Ms. Ryan reviewed the schedule for Square to Square. There was discussion regarding collecting participants data to email and express thanks. It was agreed this would be done in a timely manner. Ms. Perricone stated that information will not be used for marketing purposes.
