3 ACTION ITEMS

4 OLD BUSINESS

- a) People's Choice Award Update
Presenter: Stacy Beard, Public Information Officer

Selected as the People's Choice winner was Creepy Crawly. Stacy provided a handout showing the voting results and numbers. The artist will be invited and be presented with his $1,000 prize at an upcoming town event, most likely the first of the 2018 Clayton Concert Series.

- b) Sculpture Trail Applications Update
Presenter: Stacy Beard, Public Information Officer

Stacy led the discussion regarding the submissions and those selected by the committee. Selected sculptures include; Warrior Mask, Sea Glade, Core Revisited, Bird, Three Muses, Gypsy Passion, Earth Water Fire Wind, Virginia Horse, Wave Beyond Convergence, The Dancer, Ark, Oak Leaf Arch II and Brave New World. Final sculpture selections and possible placement will be discussed at the next Technical Review Committee meeting.

Stacy provided an update regarding the greenway art project. Stacy stated she recently had the opportunity to speak with Jane Roberts and ask if might have an interest in coordinating the upcoming projects. Ms. Roberts shared her thoughts and her disappointment with the last project with regard to coordination with schools. There was discussion and it was agreed that Ms. Perricone would reach out to Ms. Roberts and invite her to attending the next meeting the Public Art Advisory Board.

There was discussion about some local businesses considering sponsoring one of the sculpture submissions at their place of business. A copy of the contract used for the sculpture placed at Spring Brook will be shared with those businesses interested in sponsoring a sculpture.
