Presenter:

Dane Martin, Public Art Advisory Board

Chair Martin noted that additional materials are available should the Board wish to expand the flower displays. Currently, there are approximately two to three stakes and five to six small flowers remaining. The flowers installed to date have held up very well.

The Board discussed creating small laminated signs for each flower display. The proposed signs would say, "Brought to you by the Town of Clayton PAAB," and would also recognize those who contributed to the project. It was suggested the Board collaborate with the Communication Department to develop a QR code that could be included on the signs, providing residents with additional information about the project.

- b. Square-to-Square Street Festival Recap

Presenter:

Dane Martin, Public Art Advisory Board

The scavenger hunt was a great success, with approximately 50 participants taking part. During the discussion of next year's event, members suggested reevaluating the sculpture route and limiting it to sculptures located in Home Square and Town Square to create a more focused and accessible experience.
